No. 2018/TG-II/1010/16/NR

New Delhi, Dt. 01.11.2018.

The Principal Chief Commercial Managers,
All Zonal Railways.

Sub: Authority to permit transfer of Sahayak Badges.

Ref: Demands of coolies to authorised transfer of badge by Station Director.

As regards authority to approve the transfer of badges at station level by Station Directors, Zonal Railways may like to decide upon the competent authority to permit such transfer of licenses as per their convenience whether at divisional commercial office or at Station level by Station Director.

Railway Board.

RJ Issue
8-11-18

PUC at (S.No.01) is a representation, addressed to Station Director/NDLS from Sh. Kalu Ram Meena and six other coolies of NDLS, regarding provision of Medical facilities to coolies and certain other matters.

In this connection, it is submitted that Sahayaks (coolies/licensed porters) are only licensees who are granted license for carrying passengers luggage. They have to pay license fee and are entitled to charge portage at prescribed rates directly from the passengers. Since they are not railway employees, they are not entitled to the facilities available to railway employees including pension, accommodation, compassionate appointment etc. However, Government have taken a number of measures for the welfare of the Sahayaks.

As desired by DTC (G), comments on Item 01 & 02 are being obtained separately vide Notes place below for signature please and item 04 is being referred to Northern Railways for comments.

As regards handing over the work of transfer of Sahayak badge to SS/JAG grade officers of Zonal railways, as desired by DTC/G, a letter to all Zonal Railways is placed below for approval/signature pelase.

NO.85/TGII/1010/8/Licensed badge/Policy

New Delhi
9th June 2004.

To

The General Managers
All Zonal Railways.

Sub: Transfer of badges of licensed porters.

Vide letter No. 85/TGII/1010/8/Licensed badge/Policy dt. 9.12.1988, Board had issued instructions on the above subject, copy of which is enclosed.

It will be seen from the enclosed instructions that licensed porters' badge can be transferred to his son or adopted son after his death or when he becomes old or sick so as to be unable to carry out his duties properly. If he has no son or his son is not alive, the badge could also be transferred to his near relative. Near relative will include brother or brother's son or wife's brother. The conditions under which transfer of badge is to be carried out are already detailed out in the instructions issued by Board vide letter mentioned above. These instructions are reiterated.

Please acknowledge the receipt of this letter.

MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS
(RAILWAY BOARD)

No. 85/TGII/1010/8/Licensed badge/policy

New Delhi, December, 9-1988.

The General Managers,
All Indian Railways.

Sub:- Transfer of badges of licensed porters.

Ref:- Board's letters (1) No. 70/TG-II/1010/58
CA/ dated 8.5.1973, (2) No. 87/V2/NR/105 dated 5.6.1985, (3) 85/TG-II/1010/8/Licensed badges/Policy dated 23.12.1986, and (4) 85/TGII/
1010/8/Licensed badge/Policy dated 10.1.1988.

Board have reviewed the instructions contained in the letters quoted above regarding transfer of licensed porter's badge to his son/near relative.

2. It has now been decided that the 'porter's licence may be transferred to his son or, if he has no son or his son is not alive, to his near relative in the event of his death or when he becomes very old, infirm or very sick and is not able to carry out his duties properly. The son will include the adopted son. Near relatives will include brother, or brother's son, or wife's brother.'

3. The licensed porter who claims to be old, infirm or incapable of performing his duty as a licensed porter due to serious disease, should be medically examined by a railway doctor with a view to determine whether he is physically not fit. The medical certificate from a railway doctor alone should be taken as proof.

4. Before allowing such transfer of licence, it should be ascertained that the porter was the sole earning member of the family. An affidavit produced by the licensed porter under the seal of a magistrate may be taken as adequate proof of the dependence of the family on the licensed porter and the nature of relationship of the nominee.

5. The person in whose favour the licence is transferred should be physically fit to perform the duty of licensed porter. This should also be certified by a railway doctor.

6. Action to transfer the licence of a porter should be taken only when the above factors have been established to the entire satisfaction of the Railway.

Please acknowledge receipt of this letter.

No.85TGII/1010/8/Licence Badge/Policy. New Delhi, dt. 23-12-86.

The General Managers,
All Indian Railways.

Copy to: All Chief Comml. Supdts.,
All Indian Railways.

Sub: Transfer of licensed porter's badge to his son only.

Ref: (i) Board's letter no.81/v2/NR/105
dated 5-6-1985.
(ii) Board's letter no.85TGII/1010/8/
Licence badge/Policy. dated 24-9-85.

Under Board's letters referred to above the facility of transfer of licenses to the various categories of relatives including the sons of licensed porters had been withdrawn. However, after issue of these orders a large number of requests have been coming for restoration of this facility.

The matter has been reconsidered and the Board have decided that henceforth, in supersession of all previous orders on the subject, the facility of transfer of licence badge by a licensed porter may be allowed in the following circumstances:-

- (1) Only one transfer of licence would be allowed in the lifetime of a porter.
- (2) This transfer will be allowed after the death of a licensed porter or when he becomes very old, infirm or very sick and is not able to carry out his duties properly.
- (3) The licence would be transferred to the son of the porter only after getting a declaration from him in an affidavit under the seal of a Judicial Magistrate and on receipt of a verification report from the local Police in this regard.

Action may please be taken accordingly and receipt of this letter acknowledged.
